GIFT AID DECLARATION

*Gift Aid donations made by UK taxpayers* allow Chatham House to reclaim 25p from the Inland Revenue for every £1 donated (representing 20% basic rate tax). In addition, if you are a higher rate taxpayer, you may reclaim 20% (the difference between the basic and higher rates of tax) of the total value of the gift in your Self-Assessment return. Membership subscriptions to Chatham House count as donations for this purpose.*

I would like Chatham House to treat all subscriptions and donations I have made since 6 April 2000 and all subscription and donations I shall make from the date of this declaration as Gift Aid donations until I notify you otherwise.

I am a UK taxpayer

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING CHATHAM HOUSE

* You must pay an amount of income tax or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that Chatham House reclaims on your donations in the tax year (currently 25p for each £1 you give). You can count tax paid on your dividend income. If in future your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income and capital gains equal to the tax that Chatham House reclaims, you can cancel your declaration.
